Most applicants apply to the Human Resource Management major after their sophomore year. Some students may have completed the necessary prerequisites at the end of their freshman year and may apply at that time (please discuss with the advisement office if this is your intention). Students begin their core HRM experience at the beginning of their Junior year. However, students admitted after their freshman year are welcome to take HRM 326 in the Fall of their sophomore year.

The sequence of courses suggested may not fit the circumstances of every student. Students should contact their advisement center for help in outlining an efficient schedule.

Students are encouraged to complete an average of 15 credit hours each semester or 30 credit hours each year, which could include spring and/or summer terms. Taking fewer credits substantially increases the cost and the number of semesters to...

Requirement 8: Complete Marriott School exit survey online.

The Discipline
Human Resource Management is designed to prepare students to convert human capital into strategic, sustainable competitive advantages for organizations by managing the employee experience. It will help students learn how to lead organizational change, leverage employee skills, provide training, and evaluate ways to increase employees' satisfaction with their jobs and working conditions.

Career Opportunities
Specific positions that may be available with a degree in Human Resource Management include: HR generalist, recruiter, training manager, employee relations specialist, employee experience manager, benefits manager, organizational development consultant, and operations manager.

General Information
Students are encouraged to apply to Human Resource Management the summer after their sophomore year, once they have completed the prerequisite courses. Students may apply after their freshman year if they have completed the necessary prerequisites. BYU Marriott School majors are limited-enrollment programs and the application process is competitive. For assistance in preparing for the application process, it is highly recommended that students visit the BYU Marriott Undergraduate Advisement Center.

Application Information
All students entering the BYU Marriott School Human Resource Major commence their core study with their cohort during the Fall of their Junior year. Admission is based on consideration of the following:

- Prerequisite GPA
- Essay
- Resume
- Review of the overall academic record
- Professionalism
- Evidence of knowledge of and engagement with Human Resource Management (e.g., relevant coursework, work or internship experience, club involvement)
Prerequisite courses must be completed before the application deadline. Applicants with at least a 3.0 in the prerequisite courses are preferred. When prerequisite GPA is calculated, repeated or transferred courses will be discounted. Visit the BYU Marriott Undergraduate Advisement Center for more information.

TRANSFER INFORMATION

Transfer equivalencies for the following courses will not be considered: ACC 310, FIN 201, IS 201, and M COM 320.

MAP DISCLAIMER

While every reasonable effort is made to ensure accuracy, there are some student populations that could have exceptions to listed requirements. Please refer to the university catalog and your college advisement center/department for complete guidelines.
