| *THESE COURSES FILL BOTH GENERAL EDUCATION AND PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS (12 hours overlap)

Graduation Requirements:

Minimum residence hours required 30.0
Minimum hours needed to graduate 120.0

The sequence of courses suggested may not fit the circumstances of every student. Students should contact their advisement center for help in outlining an efficient schedule.

Students are encouraged to complete an average of 15 credit hours each semester or 30 credit hours each year, which could include spring and/or summer terms. Taking fewer credits substantially increases the cost and the number of semesters to graduate.

• Deadline to apply for Fall is the last working day of June by 4:30 p.m.

Students are encouraged to apply to the human resource management program when they have completed the prerequisites for admission, after their sophomore or freshman year.

• BYU Marriott majors are limited-enrollment programs and the application process is competitive. For assistance in preparing for the application process, it is highly recommended that students visit the BYU Marriott Undergraduate Advisement Center.

THE DISCIPLINE

Human Resource Management is designed to prepare students to convert human capital into strategic, sustainable competitive advantages for organizations by managing the employee experience. It will help students learn how to lead organizational change, leverage employee skills, provide training and development opportunities, and evaluate ways to increase employees' satisfaction with their jobs and working conditions.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Specific positions that may be available with a degree in Human Resource Management include: HR generalist, recruiter, training and development specialist, employee relations specialist, HR business partner, employee experience manager, compensation and benefits manager, people operations manager, and consultant. Over time HR professionals may become senior executives, such as the Chief Human Resources Officer or the Executive Vice President of HR.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Students are encouraged to apply to Human Resource Management the summer after their sophomore year, once they have completed the prerequisite courses. Students may apply after their freshman year if they have completed the necessary prerequisites.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

All students entering the BYU Marriott Human Resource Management major commence their core study the Fall of their junior year. Admission is based on the following:

- Prerequisite GPA
- Essay
- Resume
- Review of the overall academic record
- Professionalism
- Evidence of knowledge of and engagement with Human Resource Management (e.g., relevant coursework, work or internship experience, club involvement)

Prerequisite courses must be completed before the application deadline. Applicants with at least a 3.0 in the prerequisite courses are preferred. When prerequisite GPA is calculated, repeated or transferred courses will be discounted.

TRANSFER INFORMATION
Transfer equivalencies for the following courses will not be considered: ACC 310, FIN 201, IS 201, and M COM 320.

MAP DISCLAIMER
While every reasonable effort is made to ensure accuracy, there are some student populations that could have exceptions to listed requirements. Please refer to the university catalog and your college advisement center/department for complete guidelines.
