THE DISCIPLINE
Arabic study at BYU stresses facility in speaking Levantine Arabic, which is widely understood, and fluency in reading the press. Arabic majors hone their ability to write about and discuss important issues and give formal presentations. The program serves a variety of majors, including the Middle East Studies/Arabic major which prepares students for government, agency-, and NGO-related work.

CAREERS:
Graduates of our program find jobs in government agencies (the State Department, intelligence, the military), NGOs, education, and in international business. Many use it as preparation for applying to MBA and MPA programs, law school, and medical or dental school.

MAP DISCLAIMER
While every reasonable effort is made to ensure accuracy, there are some student populations that could have exceptions to listed requirements. Please refer to the university catalog and your college advisement center/department for complete guidelines.
