RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES:
Some students find opportunities to work as Teaching or Research Assistants for various faculty members up to 20 hours per week. Many family history majors are employed at the Center for Family History and Genealogy or the Religion 216 Lab. The Center offers hands-on genealogical research training in the construction and maintenance of its databases. The Religion 261 Lab provides teaching and administrative opportunities for more advanced students.

INTERNSHIPS, CO-OP & PRACTICAL ED:
The program requires an Internship in Family History (496R) which provides practical experience in the field of Family History-Genealogy. In addition, employment at the Center for Family History and Genealogy or the Religion 261 Lab offers a variety hands-on teaching and research experiences.

HONORARY SOCIETIES AND CLUBS:
Students may be eligible for membership in Phi Alpha Theta, the History Honor Society. Contact the History Department for information. Family history students are also encouraged to participate in the BYUSA Family History Club.
FINANCING:
Many students work up to 20 hours per week. Some find employment in campus offices and some junior and senior students obtain teaching or research assistantships. Most of our students obtain summer jobs that make use of their training and interests. The Center for Family History and Genealogy has competitive grant money for family history internships. The History Department and the College of Family, Home, and Social Sciences also have scholarship, prize, and grant money.

CAREERS:
Family history/genealogy is a growing and dynamic field with a variety of professional and volunteer paths. Genealogy is a multi-billion-dollar, international industry with a dizzying array of career opportunities. As graduates from the only BA degree in family history anywhere in the English-speaking world, the combination of liberal arts historical training and technical genealogical skills position students flourish in their careers and influence the direction the industry pursues in coming years.

For more information on careers in your major, please contact the University Career Center or the Liberal Arts Academic Advisement Center.

MAP DISCLAIMER
While every reasonable effort is made to ensure accuracy, there are some student populations that could have exceptions to listed requirements. Please refer to the university catalog and your college advisement center/department for complete guidelines.
