Most applicants apply to the BYU Marriott School of Business the summer after their sophomore year. Each program starts at the beginning of a new academic year.
- Deadline to apply for Fall is the last working day of June by 4:30 p.m.

The sequence of courses suggested may not fit the circumstances of every student. Students should contact their advisement center for help in outlining an efficient schedule.

Students are encouraged to complete an average of 15 credit hours each semester or 30 credit hours each year, which could include spring and/or summer terms. Taking fewer credits substantially increases the cost and the number of semesters to graduate.

THE DISCIPLINE

Marketing involves the study of consumer needs to create, communicate, and deliver value to a company’s chosen customers. The marketing major is designed to teach the strategic process of segmentation, targeting, and positioning along with integrating decisions about product, promotion, pricing, and placement or distribution. This strategic process creates value for a company’s chosen customers, which enables the company to attract and retain customers.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The marketing major prepares students for marketing responsibilities such as product/brand management, marketing analytics, social media, digital marketing, advertising and promotion, business-to-business marketing, retail marketing, and professional selling.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Students are encouraged to apply to the Marriott School of Business at the end of their sophomore year, as soon as they have completed the prerequisite courses. BYU Marriott School majors are limited-enrollment programs and the application process is competitive. For assistance in preparing for the application process, it is highly recommended that students visit the BYU Marriott Undergraduate Advisement Center.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

All new students entering the BYU Marriott School commence their study at the beginning of fall semester. Admission is based on consideration of the following:

- Prerequisite GPA
- Essay
- Résumé
- Interview
- Professionalism
- A review of the overall academic record and evidence of knowledge of and engagement with Marketing (e.g., relevant coursework, work and internship experience, and Marketing Association involvement, etc.)

Prerequisite courses must be completed before the application deadline. Any application with a prerequisite GPA below a 3.0 will not be considered. When prerequisite GPA is calculated, repeated or transferred courses will be discounted. Visit the BYU Marriott Undergraduate Advisement Center for more information.

TRANSFER INFORMATION

Transfer equivalencies for the following courses will not be considered: ACC 310, FIN 201, IS 201, and M COM 320.

MAP DISCLAIMER

While every reasonable effort is made to ensure accuracy, there are some student populations that could have exceptions to listed requirements. Please refer to the university catalog and your college advisement center/department for complete guidelines.
