Most applicants apply to the BYU Marriott School of Business the summer after their sophomore year. Each program starts at the beginning of a new academic year.

- Deadline to apply for Fall is the last working day of June by 4:30 p.m.

The sequence of courses suggested may not fit the circumstances of every student. Students should contact their advisement center for help in outlining an efficient schedule.

Students are encouraged to complete an average of 15 credit hours each semester or 30 credit hours each year, which could include spring and/or summer terms. Taking fewer credits substantially increases the cost and the number of semesters to graduate.

THE DISCIPLINE

Global supply chain management (GSCM) is the business of business. It involves the sourcing, production, and distribution of products and services. GSCM emphasizes that companies should continually improve the way they work and the products that they make. GSCM course work is designed to prepare students for managerial, analytical and consulting positions in Fortune 100 companies. Specific jobs are usually in the areas of purchasing, operations, logistics, customer service, business process consulting and supply chain management.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Careers in global supply chain include the following: strategic supply chain analyst, project manager, inventory specialist, process analyst, quality assurance specialist, operations manager, purchasing manager and logistics manager.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Students are encouraged to apply to the GSCM program at the end of their sophomore year, as soon as they have completed the prerequisite courses. BYU Marriott School majors are limited-enrollment programs and the application process is competitive. It is highly recommended that students visit the BYU Marriott Undergraduate Advisement Center for assistance in preparing for the application process.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

All new students entering the BYU Marriott School commence their study at the beginning of fall semester. Admission is based on consideration of the following:

- Prerequisite GPA
- Essay
- Résumé
- Review of the overall academic record
- Professionalism
- Evidence of a student’s knowledge of, interest in, and engagement with the field of supply chain (e.g., part-time work, internships, global supply chain student association participation)

Prerequisite courses must be completed before the application deadline. Any application with a prerequisite GPA below a 3.0 will not be considered. When prerequisite GPA is calculated, repeated or transferred courses will be discounted. See the BYU Marriott Undergraduate Advisement Center for more information.

TRANSFER INFORMATION

Transfer equivalencies for the following courses will not be considered: ACC 310, FIN 201, IS 201, and M COM 320.

MAP DISCLAIMER

While every reasonable effort is made to ensure accuracy, there are some student populations that could have exceptions to listed requirements. Please refer to the university catalog and your college advisement center/department for complete guidelines.
