2. Pick up and complete an application form during TMA 276.

For more information, please refer to <http://tma.byu.edu>. A teaching minor is not required for licensure. However, it is strongly recommended.

THE DISCIPLINE:

The BYU theatre education program is designed to educate the student in a basic foundation of pedagogy, dramatic literature, theatre history, performance skills as both actor and director, and techniques in theatre design technology and production.

THE EXPERIENCE:

The Theatre Arts Education degree program is designed to prepare students to become creative teachers who can meet the educational needs of elementary and secondary school theatre students. We develop highly skilled educators who understand social and interpersonal communication, storytelling teaching methods, acting, directing, writing, historical/analytical techniques, and design/production skills. Within the department, professional training is available in acting, directing, voice and diction, playwriting, lighting, set construction, set painting, and scene and costume design. Participation in dozens of faculty, graduate-student, and undergraduate-student directed theatre and film projects provides the best possible forum for trying out these growing skills. Assistantships and hourly jobs are available with school districts locally and outside of the area, as well as with theatre, film, and television companies.

FINANCING OF EDUCATION:

The department offers assistantships in our scenic and costume studios, backstage in facility management, properties scenic art, and in the classroom and labs at various levels of responsibility. Merit scholarships are also available to both incoming and continuing students. Contact the Theatre and Media Arts Department for more information.

FACILITIES:

The Theatre and Media Arts Department is housed in BYU's Harris Fine Arts Center, which contains four full theatre spaces. The deJong Concert Hall is a 1,285-seat concert hall. The Pardoe Theatre is a 509-seat proscenium stage with a full revolve and fly system. The Margetts Arena Theatre is a varying-seat, black-box facility offering a creative theatrical environment. The Nelke Experimental Theatre is a 224-seat proscenium stage with an elevator stage; it is used principally for productions that are student directed, student designed, and student acted. This space alone houses two totally new productions every week. The department also has its own scene shop, fully equipped to work in wood, metal, and plastics; costume shop; makeup lab, and computer drafting studio. Our department also affiliates with the LDS Motion Picture Studio, KBYU, and BYU-TV.

HONORARY SOCIETIES AND CLUBS:

The program is actively involved in the American Alliance for Theatre and Education, the Educational Theatre Association, and the Utah Theatre Association, with yearly conferences for faculty and students at various locations across the United States. The department also hosts a chapter of Theta Alpha Phi, the national drama society, offering special theatre trips and service activities.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES:

The theatre education program provides training and experience in all areas of theatre, preparing graduates to become an elementary education theatre specialist, a teaching artist, or to teach at the secondary level -- theatre history, dramatic literature, acting, directing, playwriting, technical theatre, and theatre pedagogy.
