Note: Check with department for current availability of all courses.

Note: Students are encouraged to complete an average of 15–16 credit hours each semester or 30–32 credit hours each year, which could include spring and/or summer terms. Taking fewer credits substantially increases the cost and the number of semesters to graduate.
The Spanish and Portuguese Department requires a minimum of 18 upper-division major hours to be taken in residence at BYU for this degree program. These hours may also go toward BYU's 30-hour residency requirement for graduation.

For students accepted into the major after August 1, 2014, grades below C in any required coursework in a teaching major or teaching minor will not be accepted. Teacher candidates must maintain a total GPA of 3.0 or higher throughout the program and to qualify for student teaching. For details on admission and retention requirements for teaching majors and teaching minors, see Educator Preparation Program (EPP) Requirements in the undergraduate catalog.

A teaching minor in another subject is strongly recommended. Teaching opportunities in public schools may be significantly reduced without a second teaching subject that a teaching minor provides.

THE MAJOR:
The BA in Spanish Teaching at Brigham Young University is designed to prepare students for professional licensure to teach Spanish in secondary schools. The program aims to develop a broad foundation in the Spanish language and Hispanic literatures and cultures, as well as the specific knowledge and skills necessary to teach Spanish to adolescents in public school settings. The Spanish Teaching BA program is one of nearly 30 programs in BYU’s Educator Preparation Program. As such, it also encompasses the general goals for all teaching majors at BYU (see http://education.byu.edu/cites/new_statement.html). The Spanish Teaching major is a limited enrollment program, which means that students must apply for admission to the program. Before applying, students must complete FLang 276 (Exploration of Language Teaching), offered on the first block during Fall and Winter semesters. Immediately upon completion of 276, students may apply to the Spanish Teaching major. Application deadlines are Oct. 31 and Feb. 28. Application is done through the MyLink database (https://mylink.byu.edu/home/).

A teaching minor in another field is not required but strongly encouraged. For a list of teaching majors and minors, see http://education.byu.edu/ess/majors_and_minors.html.
