THE DISCIPLINE:
European Studies is an interdisciplinary degree that combines advanced language study with Europe-related coursework in the humanities and social sciences. Courses are taught by Europeanists from a variety of academic disciplines, including history, political science, literature, language, art history, philosophy, sociology, geography, economics, and business. Besides developing an in-depth understanding of European history and culture, students will acquire advanced skills in critical thinking, close reading, and persuasive writing.

Building on their University Core and GE Foreign Language courses, students begin the major with an introduction to European Studies (Europ 200), a survey of European history (Hist 250), two elective courses in European history, and a course in either Western or Eastern European politics (Poli 341 or 347). By their junior year, students should begin either the Social Sciences track or the Humanities track, each of which requires twelve hours of coursework. In their final year, students take the senior seminar in European Studies (Europ 490R) and nine hours of supporting coursework (which must be approved in advance by the European Studies faculty coordinator).

CLUBS AND HONOR SOCIETIES
European Studies Student Association (ESSA), Model European Union, Model United Nations, International Society, foreign language clubs, choirs, and honor societies.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES:
While a degree in European Studies can lead to a range of rewarding careers, majors in the discipline are strongly encouraged to supplement their degree with a study abroad experience, an international internship, and a minor or secondary major in a complementary field. Past graduates have found work in business, government, non-profit administration, and domestic and international teaching. Others have used the degree as a springboard to graduate studies in law, business, medicine, political science, public administration, international studies, history, literature, and language.

MAP DISCLAIMER
While every reasonable effort is made to ensure accuracy, there are some student populations that could have exceptions to listed requirements. Please refer to the university catalog and your college advisement center/department for complete guidelines.
