The sequence of courses suggested may not fit the circumstances of every student. Students should contact their advisement center for help in outlining an efficient schedule.

Students are encouraged to complete an average of 15 credit hours each semester or 30 credit hours each year, which could include spring and/or summer terms. Taking fewer credits substantially increases the cost and the number of semesters to graduate.

THE DISCIPLINE

Finance is the study of the entire process from both sides—the financier holding the financial capital and the entity requesting the use of that capital. It explores how and under what conditions financial capital is transferred from the financier to the corporations, governments, and individuals seeking to use the money.

In a way, finance is the study of how to most effectively and efficiently get financial resources from the financiers to the corporations, requesting the use of that capital. It explores how and under what conditions financial capital is transferred from the financier holding the financial capital and the entity seeking to use the money.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Finance graduates work in a variety of fields that include but are not limited to: asset manager, commercial banker, corporate financial planning analyst, corporate treasury analyst, consultant, credit analyst, equity analyst, investment banker, private wealth advisor, and securities or commodity trader.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Students are encouraged to apply to the Marriott School of Business at the end of their freshman year as soon as they have completed the prerequisite courses. BYU Marriott School majors are limited-enrollment programs and the application process is competitive. For assistance in preparing for the application process, it is highly recommended that students visit the BYU Marriott Undergraduate Advisement Center.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

All students entering the BYU Marriott School of Business commence their study at the beginning of fall semester. Admission into the BYU Marriott School is based on consideration of the following:

- GPA in prerequisite courses
- Essay
- Review of the overall academic record
- Professionalism
- Résumé

Prerequisite courses must be completed before the application deadline.
Any application with a prerequisite GPA below a 3.0 will not be considered. Repeated or transferred courses will be discounted when the prerequisite GPA is calculated. See the BYU Marriott Undergraduate Advisement Center for more information.

TRANSFER INFORMATION

Transfer equivalencies for the following courses will not be considered: FIN 201, IS 201, and M COM 320.

MAP DISCLAIMER

While every reasonable effort is made to ensure accuracy, there are some student populations that could have exceptions to listed requirements. Please refer to the university catalog and your college advisement center/department for complete guidelines.
