Students should visit the BYU Marriott Undergraduate Advisement Center for assistance in preparing for the application process. It is highly recommended that students get involved with the GSCM undergraduate club as soon as possible to see if they are a good fit for the major. Students who have completed internships, including on-campus internships, and have a good GPA are generally are admitted into the program. Students from applying again at the end of their sophomore year. Most applicants apply to the BYU Marriott School of Business the summer after their freshman year as long as prerequisite courses include spring and/or summer terms. Taking fewer credits substantially increases the cost and the number of semesters to graduate.

For university core and program questions contact the advisement center in 460 TNRB.

*These courses fill both general education and program requirements (12 hours overlap)

THE DISCIPLINE

Global supply chain management (GSCM) is the business of business. It involves the creation, sourcing, production, and distribution of products and services. GSCM emphasizes that companies should continually improve the way they work. GSCM course work is designed to prepare students for managerial, analytical and consulting positions in Fortune 100 companies. Specific jobs are usually in the areas of IT consulting, business process consulting, purchasing, operations, logistics, and service management.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Careers in global supply chain include the following: business strategy consultant, IT implementation consultant, business process analyst, buyer, project manager, warehouse leader, Lean, six sigma and quality manager, operations manager, purchasing manager and logistics manager.

The companies who are the biggest recruiters in this major are Boeing, Sunrise Technologies, Amazon, Walmart, and Honeywell. Several car companies, major retailers and entrepreneurial companies also recruit our majors.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Students are encouraged to apply to the GSCM program at the end of their freshman year, as soon as they have completed the prerequisite courses. Students who apply after their sophomore year are given... equal consideration as well. Students not accepted after their freshman year can apply again after their sophomore year.

BYU Marriott School majors are limited-enrollment programs. However, students who have completed internships, including on-campus internships, students who have a good GPA and student who choose GSCM as their first choice are generally admitted into the program.

It is highly recommended that students get involved the GSCM undergraduate student association as soon as possible to help develop understanding of the major.

Students should visit the BYU Marriott Undergraduate Advisement Center for assistance in preparing for the application process.

For more information about the global supply chain management program, visit https://marriottschool.byu.edu/gscm/

APPLICATION INFORMATION

All new students entering the BYU Marriott School commence their study at the beginning of fall semester. Admission is based on consideration of the following:

- Review of the overall academic record
- Résumé
- Essays
- Evidence of a student’s interest in the field of supply chain management

Prerequisite courses must be completed before the application deadline. Applicants with at least a 3.0 in the prerequisite courses are preferred. When prerequisite GPA is calculated, repeated or transferred courses will be discounted. See the BYU Marriott Undergraduate Advisement Center for more information.

TRANSFER INFORMATION

Transfer equivalencies for the following courses will not be considered: ACC 310, FIN 201, IS 201, and M COM 320.
