Berlin Internship Program. We offer a broad range of internship opportunities in Berlin and a few other locations. Students receive individual help to find and prepare for a work experience that will improve their German-language skills and provide a meaningful context for their academic studies. Students participate in a language course during the internship.

Foreign Language Student Residence. An opportunity to live with other students who have pledged to use only German within the house and with head residents who are native speakers of German. Enrollment in 311R is required while living in the house. Prerequisite: Germ 102 or equivalent.

German-Speaking LDS Mission or Other Extended German-Speaking Residency. Advanced students enroll in Germ 330 and, if desired, complete examinations for Germ 101, 102, 201, and 311R.

Study at a German University. The department recommends that students spend their junior year, if possible, at a German university taking courses that will apply toward the major. Universities in Germany charge no tuition, so, even though living costs are generally higher, with careful planning and modest financial support, most students find they can study at “Provo parity,” that is, for about the same amount as a year of study in Provo. For advice about how to enroll in what financial support is available, contact the department office.
